

I disagree with HDTV copy protection on the grounds that it violates the fair use rights of citizens. We have the right to record and play back Television at any time, no matter if it's HDTV, or normal television.