

to prevent recording of any broadcast would hurt the companys that pay to advertise. most peoples lives are very busy and the only way most people can watch their shows is thorough recording them, to be viewed at a spare moment later in there schedule. what about people that record 3 different channnels becaus there favorite shows all start at 7 Pm on three different networks. How many commercials would they miss?