

The encouragement of listeners by employees of Clear Channel Communications, especially on the "Bob and Madison" show on G 105 to assault or otherwise endanger cyclists is both irresponsible and criminal. As a cyclist who has been run off of the road by motorists and shot at by motorists, this sort of encouragement is most unwelcome. I have also read that employees of Clear Channel in other markets such as Houston and Cleveland. These acts should not be tolerated.