

I beg the Commission's indulgence to thank all those who commented on my petition whether you agreed with it or not. I read all your comments and hope the Commission does so as well.

There were thoughtful comments on both sides. I think we all agree that the real key is that we share a common interest in the future of Amateur Radio. My compliments to you for caring enough to participate in the process with me.

Charlie Young
AG4YO