

I agree that Morse Code testing should continue to be part of the amateur radio exams. I also agree that prior experience as a lower class amateur be a requirement for upgrading to a higher class.