

SBC of Northern California has grossly overcharged me and charged me for services I have never requested or received. Their customer service is horrible and often unreachable. I have tried for 7 months to get these fees reversed, and SBC is still giving me the run-around.