

As a woman, I passed the 13w.p.m. code test over ten years ago. I found learning the code no different than typing or hand-signing for the deaf. I do not use the code but, when necessary it is a god-send. The levels in RM-10811 seem very reasonable to me.