

I fully support Mr. Holliday in removing the Morse requirement from all licenses in the Amateur Radio Service. It is much more important to ensure the technical compliance and legal compliance with part 95 than to burden potential licensees with an ancient (although efficient) mode of operation.

Mitchel K. Baum - N2UKJ