

It is hoped that you will consider the fact of keeping morse code as an integral part of Ham Radio. The bottom line is this -----
There is very little justification for Ham Radio without the utilization of morse code as a necessary instrument. The code system is a part of its fiber and adds to the necessary challenge for anyone who wishes to be a part.