

Please give some thought to the value of education and the need for educational use of digital media. As analog media disappear, educators will be left unable to present even the smallest moments of commercial media for critical evaluation.