

I support RM-10811. It maintains and improves important technical skills and provides incentives to improve skills, while still allowing HF access to people who feel Morse Code is not necessary for their operating style.

Sincerely,
CT Rauch