

I am against this proposal as all license requirements should remain as they presently are. There is nothing to be gained with these changes. Leave all of the Morse Code allocation frequencies as they are. The code must stay for all levels of amateur radio licensing.

Jonathan Case KE9KW