

This petition is a very valid one. Code, to some, may be out of date, but for the world of Amature Radio, it is not. Not only does taking the time to learn the code show a willingness to be dedicated to the service, it also roots its members in the history of Amature Radio.