

I support keeping the code requirement for the General and Extra amateur license.