

I am writing to ask that you immediately do something to protect the migratory birds being killed by towers we are putting up in our country. The progress of our nation should never be at the expense of God's creatures--rather, when their welfare is considered it shows a country of enlightenment and intelligence. I was so upset to learn about this, I had no idea. Please do the right thing!!