

I strongly disagree the petition filed by the Puerto Rico Amateur Radio League assigned RM-10809. Code requirements in Amateur Radio should be increased not decreased to maintain a pool of proficient Amateur Radio operators. Without stringent mandatory code requirements this valuable emergency resource would be diminished. The FCC should not buckle under the wishes of people who want to become instant Amateur Radio hobbyists.