

Superbowl Halftime Feedback

It is interesting that the whole focus of the halftime has now turned to the disgusting ending! I was forming a complaint way before that on the entire half time show. Football halftimes are supposed to be designed for families to watch with marching bands and entertainers that appeal to all ages. Turning over a halftime show to MTV was so narrow minded of CBS. I felt the costuming of all the dancers was offensive as well as the choreography. It was more like a Music Video than upbeat get the crowd singing, swaying and rocking to the beat. I regrettably viewed the halftime with my 16 year old as well as Grandpa and Grandma. It is possible to appeal to all ages with the right style and choice of music. Kid Rock was very offensive and cheerleaders stripping off their skirts and tops to the lyrics of "its getting hot in here, I want to take off my clothes" is NOT family entertainment! Please take the steps necessary to fine those responsible and let the public know that you as the FCC will not tolerate such shoddy decisions by a network. Thank You, Concerned Citizen MS. Barton
