

In reference to Ms. Janet Jackson's bare ---. Well with all the low cut tops women, exposing cleavage or the commercials showing women with daisy duke shorts exposing butt cheeks, or g-string bikini's. No I am no Gay, very heteral sexual man. But no one is saying anything about all of this. In the world today all of this is acceptable. I am not saying that what Ms. Jackson did is not wrong, but we are crusifing one woman and not the system that created this type of veiwing media. The outrage is for so long this type of behavior has been accepted. What about LiL Kim at the award show with her complete left breast showing while on stage, nipple covered by a pastie. No one complained on that matter, It is as if this type of behavior is acceptable in public. Shame that CBS, ABC, NBC are so hard up for rateings that this is ok behavior.
