

This makes no sense. Why add to the bandwidth surplus at the cost of all that potential interference. Sometimes it is not wise to do something just because you can. Please consider all the ramifications of this potential action.

By the way, I am in full support of you clamping down on all the indecent stuff on commercial radio and TV as well as cable and satellite.