

Please reconsider allowing Broadband over Power Lines (BPL) to be used. The recorded evidence demonstrates a significant interference issue and there are other broadband options available -- even in rural areas.

I am extremely upset about how this is being pushed down our throats. There is a reason many countries have already put a stop to this destructive technology.

DSL, cable , dial up, and satalite connections to the internet are better solutions than BPL.

Thank you for your time

James Wissick
KG6MSO