

Comcast broadband internet service is inconsisten, plagued with extensive outages, and support with poor customer service. I average approx. 5 - 7 days per month without internet service and have had two service visits in the last four months. Comcast will stonewall requests for refunds of service and does not follow through on its commitments. I would welcome any competition to challenge Comcast for high speed internet access.