

i george c mullins my amateur call sign is KC8QWW i oppose this RM-10869 because if a person was in a boat in the ocean and his life was in danger and he had two ways to get help to him would he sit there and send out morse code to get help or would he use his mike on his hf radio to get help to him as fast as he can maybe he dont know how to send morse code what about a person in mountians in his cabin his life is in danger would he use morse code to get help or would he use his mike on his hf radio to get help fast as he can i dont know why general and advanced and extra want to hold to the morse code test requirement for the hf bands for new hams people like me that can pass the morse code for hf bands SO I ASK THE FCC TO PLEASE DROP THE MORSE CODE TEST FOR ALL THE HAM EXAMS THANK YOU