

Who are you to say what is decent? Your recent crack-down on Howard Stern, Bubba the love Sponge, and others, has proven to me how hypocritical our conservative government is. Maybe the Taliban and others like them are actually winning the war on terror. Look at all the freedoms we have had taken away from us since 911. Freedom of speech and the freedom to choose our own entertainment has been attacked by our own government. Please help reverse this trend of spreading fear, by trying to silence those people you don't agree with. This will not help protect our children or anyone else.
