

I'm in favor of RM-10869 to maintain amateur communications in times of need and a common base of communication with other countries who have amateur operators with out advanced language skills and equipment.