

I am opposed to this petition. Morse Code is an important aspect of Amateur Radio for multiple reasons and it is important to retain some classes of license requiring demonstration of proficiency in Morse Code. Adoption of this petition will only further divide the Amateur Radio community.