

my name is george c mullins i hope that the fcc is not going to let all the amateur radio operator that wants to keep the morse code testing for hf exam tell them what to do all the hams thats got there hf privileges they dont care about technician or any new hams geting there hf privilegs they want to use the morse code testing for hf exams to control who gets on the hf bands they said that two many people will over crowd the hf bands this is a hobby for everybody to enjoy fcc should not it happen because they will control the amateur radio air waves all people should have a chance to talk on hf bands just because that they are smarter then us who cant pass the morse code test for hf bands they want to use that to keep us of the hf bands and thats not fair to us i pray that the fcc will grant this RM-10787 without the fcc help we dont stand a chance so help us please thank you.