

I fully support the license restructuring proposal. I am involved with emergency communications and feel this will allow us more flexibility with our operators by not limiting them to where they can operate. I do however, feel the need to keep the code requirement for the extra class license.