

Attachment to DeBates Affidavit

Pace Communications Corp., a plaintiff in a lawsuit against Cingular Wireless, Inc. ("Cingular"), a copy of which is provided herewith, severed its relationship with Cingular as a result of Cingular's misconduct. Subsequently, Pace Communications Corp. became an AT&T agent on March 14, 2003. If the FCC approves the merger between AT&T and Cingular, Pace Communications Corp. will again be forced to become an agent of Cingular or be forced to close its business.
