

I use XM radio exclusively. I don't even have an FM radio in my car, so the only way I can receive local info is through XM. Also, XM should be free to broadcast whatever content they want. They are using their own medium for this distribution, so why should anyone interfere...