

Listening to XM radio is a new awakening. Their broad range of music allows me to happily remember my past. Not to allow them to broadcast traffic and weather is absurd. They should be rewarded for their innovation, not punished.