

The traffic coverage that XM provides is by far better than any of the local radio stations provide and more timely. I have used the traffic and weather reports in not only my home area, but in other areas that I have traveled to. The local stations can either strive to match what XM is doing or just be left behind. The FCC should not be swayed by the pressure of the NAB.