

I use Satellite Radio extensively in my home and cars, especially on road trips and local commuting. Receipt of information, especially weather conditions, alerts, and forecasts, in my local area and areas to where I am traveling is critical.

The NAB's petition should have been considered when initializing establishing regulations for Satellite Radio. To introduce limits now is not reasonable.