

Freedom of expression, freedom of speech, freedom of choice. Slowly, the government erodes these basic rights through policies enacted by agencies and lawmakers under the pressure of lobby groups that do not have the best interest of the people of this and other countries as a core value. Please allow the free competitive market to continue to provide choices and say "no" to the NAB's (National Association of Broadcasters) attempt to further their influence at the detriment of our freedom to choose.