

I pay for this service and I expect it to be left alone by regulations that are motivated by greed and avarice. This is the last bastion of free speech. The FCC has taken the other avenues for the free exchange of ideas away from the people. Prove to the people you still have a modicum of integrity by rejecting NAB's petition 04-160. Sincerely,
Mike Fleagle, RN