

Please reject NAB's petition 04-160. XN Satellite Radio is a very valuable service that provides variety and quality coverage not available at the same level. I pay for these services and should be able to continue to enjoy the service without intervention or interference from the NAB. I support XM's ability to provide satellite radio services.