

I support XMs right to broadcast local information such as news and traffic. Competition is the basis of the American economy. if the land based radio stations do jnot like XM, they should devevelop programming that competed not try to have laws past limiting competition.