

I support the NAB position of restricting Satellite Radio from encroaching into the local radio arena. Satellite Radio Companies have NO local investment in the community and should be prevented from attempting to compete with those of us who have spent our entire careers building rapport, commitment, and accountability to our local communities.