

I support the NAB petition to limit local origination of traffic and weather by satellite services. These services are not as complete and timely as on local stations and people are confused by them. It is also a waste of channels on which there could be truly unique programming. The satellite people are trying to create a monopoly!