

I support and agree with the FISTS organizations submission RM-10811. Specifically, the code requirement for HF licensing should be retained. In addition, the current CW sub-bands should be retained as proposed in the FISTS proposal. The CW mode is the essence and history of ham radio. If abandoned, I believe that flagrant abuse of the frequencies will result. Thank you. Ken Stovesand, N4OI