

VRS is essential for the continued equal access and quality communication via the phone or internet for Deaf and Hard-of-Hearing people across the US, and serves as an excellent model for other countries to follow. Please do not reduce the VRS rate of reimbursement any further or make any cuts to services.