

In St. Louis, there is a radio station called Z107.7. The lyrics that they broadcast are some the raunchiest I have ever heard on the radio. It's sending a terrible message, particularly to our urban youth, but being a pop station, I don't think parents are aware of what they're children are truly listening to.

Thank you for listening.