

Closed captioning is vitally important for access with TV and movies at home - I do not know what I would do without it - as well what my client with Deaf and Hard of hearing disabilities would do without it. I would be more beneficial and inclusive if more movies would be captioned.