

In my opinion, as a retired broadcaster of 30 years, we must bring back the Fairness

Doctrine and reinstate proof of public service before granting a license or its renewal to any entity. Ownership should be returned to prior rules that severely limited combined local licensing of multiple media. Reduction of commercial time in each hour of operation should be reduced.