Re: AT&T Corp. Petition for Declaratory Ruling Regarding Enhanced Prepaid Card Services, WC Docket No. 03-133

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On Friday, August 6, 2004, Robert Quinn and I met with Steve Morris, Jennifer McKee and Cathy Carpino of the Wireline Competition Bureau. Judy Sello, also of AT&T, participated via conference call. The purpose of this meeting was to discuss issues pertaining to AT&T's petition for declaratory ruling regarding enhanced prepaid card services.

In particular, we stressed that the Commission must ensure that it treats facilities-based and non-facilities-based providers equally and that it would be patently unlawful for the Commission to issue any order in this proceeding that singled out AT&T (or vertically-integrated providers) for disparate regulatory treatment. In addition, we reiterated that the prepaid card market is highly competitive and provides an important social benefit, especially to those consumers who are most in need of a low-cost alternative to a traditional telephone subscription plan. The arguments made were consistent with AT&T's prior written submissions in the above-referenced proceeding.

One electronic copy of this Notice is being submitted to the Secretary of the FCC in accordance with Section 1.1206 of the Commission's rules.

Sincerely,
