

My husband is hard of hearing and relies on captioning to understand what is being presented. I find that although I am hearing, I also rely on captions to fill in the gaps of dialog I might have missed. It is very frustrating and distracting to watch a show with inaccurate captions and it is worse to not have any captions at all. Thank you for working to improve TV captions for all.