

Please respect the individual privacy of people using the internet.
Do not mandate back doors to allow government to snoop on peoples internet activity. Do not use the CALEA to allow online wiretapping.
This is a sad thing when people loose their rights to privacy in this way.
Taking away privacy is punishing the many because of the activities of a few.
This is not just. This is not freedom. This is not privacy.