

I am writing to express my disapproval of adding the ability to listen in on internet voice communications. (VOIP) It would be difficult and expensive to implement, and would add to surveillance on US citizens that is not needed.