Dear Commissioner,

In the absence of parliamentary debate on political issues in our political system, the US media is the primary tool Americans have for initiating dialog and questioning policy makers. Therefore it is imperative to the functioning of our democracy that the media not be controlled by an oligopoly.

I am concerned about the power a handful of major media companies exert on what we hear, read and see. Please adopt new rules that cap ownership at 35% and prohibit cross-ownership of newspapers and broadcast stations.

Dear Commissioner,

I am deeply concerned about the power of a small number of major media companies limiting what we hear, read and see.

When just a few corporations control the news, we are in serious danger of losing contrasting viewpoints, which are essential to democracy.

I urge you to please adopt new rules that

- cap ownership at 35%
- prohibit cross-ownership of newspapers and broadcast stations.
