Re: In the Matter of Unbundled Access to Network Elements,
WC Docket No. 04-313; Review of the Section 251 Unbundling
Obligations of Incumbent Local Exchange Carriers, CC Docket
No. 01-338
Access to Confidential Information

Dear Ms. Dortch:

Enclosed for filing with the FCC in the above-referenced proceedings are executed Acknowledgments of Confidentiality (that is, from Appendix B as attached to the modified Protective Order appended to the September 29, 2004 Order, DA 04-3152, of the Wireline Competition Bureau), for the following employees of Qwest and its outside counsel and consultant:¹

- Craig Brown – Corporate Counsel for Qwest
- Richard Buckley – Director, Policy and Law for Qwest
- Peter Copeland – Director, Cost and Economic Analysis for Qwest
- Ross Dino – Director, Law Dept. Resource Center for Qwest
- Richard Grozier – Lead Policy Rep, Law Dept. Resource Center for Qwest
- Carolyn Hammack – Director Legal Issues, Public Policy for Qwest
- Robert J. Hubbard – Director for Qwest
- Molly Martin – Staff Advocate, Public Policy for Qwest
- Robert McKenna – Associate General Counsel for Qwest
- Teresa Million – Staff Director, Costs for Qwest

¹ The names that are underscored have not been previously identified to the FCC and parties to this proceeding in this context (Qwest filed a similar letter on October 6th with all of the other listed names included and executed Acknowledgments attached). Qwest is re-filing/serving (as indicated on page two of this correspondence) all of the executed Acknowledgments that were submitted on October 6th because it has become clear (as more parties' Comments have been loaded into ECFS) that additional parties filed non-redacted Comments (or portions of those Comments) on October 4th.

- Wendy Moser – Associate General Counsel for Qwest
- Cronan O’Connell – Vice President, Federal Regulatory for Qwest
- Jerrold Thompson – Director Legal Issues, Public Policy for Qwest
- David Teitzel – Staff Director, Public Policy for Qwest
- Christine Crowe – Outside Counsel for Qwest (Wilkinson, Barker, Knauer, LLP)
- Charles Keller – Outside Counsel for Qwest (Wilkinson, Barker, Knauer, LLP)
- Kenneth Patrich – Outside Counsel for Qwest (Wilkinson, Barker, Knauer, LLP)
- Michael Sullivan – Outside Counsel for Qwest (Wilkinson, Barker, Knauer, LLP)
- Andrew Tollin – Outside Counsel for Qwest (Wilkinson, Barker, Knauer, LLP)
- Kathryn Zachem – Outside Counsel for Qwest (Wilkinson, Barker, Knauer, LLP)
- Christopher Calvert – Outside Counsel for Qwest (Paralegal for Wilkinson, Barker, Knauer, LLP)
- Harry Shooshan III – Outside Consultant for Qwest (Strategic Policy Research)

All of the Qwest employees and its outside counsel and consultant that executed the attached Acknowledgments have read the modified Protective Order, agree to be bound by its terms and agree not to disclose any confidential information except as permitted pursuant to the modified Protective Order. In addition, all of these persons are either in-house or outside counsel/consultant, or directly support in-house counsel, and thus disclosure of confidential information to them is permissible because they are “other employees . . . assisting Counsel in this proceeding” (see modified Protective Order at para. 5).

Qwest is serving these Acknowledgments on an expedited basis (via hand delivery or overnight courier) on the parties that appear to have filed non-redacted Comments (or portions of their Comments) on October 4th, pursuant to paragraph 8 of the modified Protective Order, so that it may trigger on October 8, 2004 (for the six additional individuals identified above and with respect to the additional parties that filed non-redacted Comments) the start of the three-business-day waiting period.² Alternatively, given the very short interval between the due dates for Comments and Reply Comments, Qwest requests that this waiting period be tolled with the filing of this letter so that the signatories can have immediate access to any confidential information. Qwest, in fact, is using this approach in responding to any party’s reasonable request for immediate access, pursuant to the modified Protective Order, to the non-redacted version of the Comments Qwest filed on October 4th. Should Qwest seek access to any confidential information from additional parties that have filed or will file such information in the future, then it will serve those parties (if they have not been previously served) with Acknowledgments of Confidentiality pursuant to the terms of the modified Protective Order.

² On the Qwest filing made on October 6th, it identified the following parties as having filed non-redacted Comments (or portions of those Comments) on October 4th: AT&T, Sprint and New Jersey Division of the Ratepayer Advocate. Today, Qwest is identifying the following additional parties as having filed non-redacted Comments (or portions) on October 4th: ALTS; Covad; MCI; NuVox; SBC Communications; Utah Committee of Consumer Services; and Verizon. On the attached Certificate of Service, all of these parties are marked with an asterisk to identify them. All other parties that filed Comments on October 4th are being simultaneously served today via First-Class U.S. Mail.

Sincerely,

/s/ Craig J. Brown

Acknowledgment of Confidentiality

CC Docket No. 01-338 & WC Docket No. 04-313

I hereby acknowledge that I have received and read a copy of the Protective Order in the above-captioned proceeding, and I understand it. I agree that I am bound by the Protective Order and that I shall not disclose or use Stamped Confidential Documents or Confidential Information except as allowed by the Protective Order. I acknowledge that a violation of the Protective Order is a violation of an order of the Federal Communications Commission.

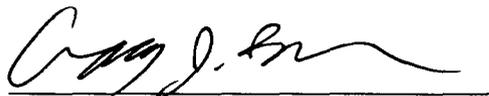

Without limiting the foregoing, to the extent that I have any employment, affiliation or role with any person or entity other than a conventional private law firm (such as, but not limited to, a lobbying or public interest organization), I acknowledge specifically that my access to any information obtained as a result of the order is due solely to my capacity as Counsel or consultant to a party or other person described in paragraph 5 of the foregoing Protective Order and that I will not use such information in any other capacity nor will I disclose such information except as specifically provided in the Protective Order.

I hereby certify that I am not involved in "competitive decision-making" as that term is used in the definition of In-House Counsel in paragraph 2 of the Protective Order.

I acknowledge that it is my obligation to ensure that: (1) Stamped Confidential Documents and Confidential Information are used only as provided in the Protective Order; and (2) Stamped Confidential Documents are not duplicated except as specifically permitted by the terms of paragraph 10 of the Protective Order. I certify that I have verified that there are in place procedures, at my firm or office, to prevent unauthorized disclosure of Stamped Confidential Documents or Confidential Information.

Capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Protective Order.

Executed at Denver, Colorado, this 5th day of October, 2004.

CC Docket No. 01-338 & WC Docket No. 04-313

I hereby acknowledge that I have received and read a copy of the Protective Order in the above-captioned proceeding, and I understand it. I agree that I am bound by the Protective Order and that I shall not disclose or use Stamped Confidential Documents or Confidential Information except as allowed by the Protective Order. I acknowledge that a violation of the Protective Order is a violation of an order of the Federal Communications Commission.

Without limiting the foregoing, to the extent that I have any employment, affiliation or role with any person or entity other than a conventional private law firm (such as, but not limited to, a lobbying or public interest organization), I acknowledge specifically that my access to any information obtained as a result of the order is due solely to my capacity as Counsel or consultant to a party or other person described in paragraph 5 of the foregoing Protective Order and that I will not use such information in any other capacity nor will I disclose such information except as specifically provided in the Protective Order.

I hereby certify that I am not involved in "competitive decision-making" as that term is used in the definition of In-House Counsel in paragraph 2 of the Protective Order.

I acknowledge that it is my obligation to ensure that: (1) Stamped Confidential Documents and Confidential Information are used only as provided in the Protective Order; and (2) Stamped Confidential Documents are not duplicated except as specifically permitted by the terms of paragraph 10 of the Protective Order. I certify that I have verified that there are in place procedures, at my firm or office, to prevent unauthorized disclosure of Stamped Confidential Documents or Confidential Information.

Capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Protective Order.

Executed at Washington, D.C. this 5th day of October, 2004.
