

I am shocked and disturbed that the SINCLAIR BROADCASTING GROUP is using its stations to try to influence the presidential elections. This is one step away from a state run media like PRAVDA. This cannot be allowed in a free democracy. One party cannot control the debate in such an egregiously unfair manner. You are the agency we trust to regulate programming. Please do something to keep them from forcing their affiliates to run political advertising during prime time viewing.

Kevin Scheen